Papers in Progress

“Stable Strategies for Personal Development” uses a science fiction short story to argue that radical human enhancements are probably a prudential mistake. Intended for Okopal (ed.) Ethics in Science Fiction.

“Teaching Academic Reading Skills With Small-Group Discussion Guides” outlines and advocates for my approach to teaching deep reading skills in lower-division college classes.

“Well-Being, Preference Satisfaction, and Disability” develops an adequacy test for theories of well-being, then argues that theories in the preference-satisfaction family fail that test.
